Perry to retire at close of 2007 season

Hanover College's Wayne Perry will retire as head football coach at the conclusion of the 2007 gridiron campaign. Perry, the winningest coach in Indiana collegiate football history, will move into a position to lead Hanover's athletic fund-raising initiatives and coach the College's men's and women's golf programs.

Perry has guided Hanover's football program since 1982. He has tallied a 172-81-2 record heading into his 26th season with the Panthers. Under Perry's guidance, Hanover has won eight conference titles (1989, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2000, 2002 and 2003), made nine trips to the national playoffs (1984, 1986, 1989, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2000, 2002 and 2003) and posted each of the school's 10-win seasons (10-0 in 1995, 1997, 1999 and 2002).

He became the winningest coach in Indiana collegiate football history with a 41-35 overtime victory against the College of Mount St. Joseph (Ohio), Oct. 1, 2005. With the win, he surpassed Butler University legend Tony Hinkle, who totaled 165 wins in 32 seasons with the Bulldogs.

Perry earned the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) District 21 coach of the year honor seven times during a 10-year span in the 1980s and 1990s. In addition, he was named the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference coach-of-the-year in 1989, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1999 and 2003.
